Dear Mr. Savarese,

I wanted to take the time out and let you know how thankful I am to have interned with you and your company, Full Circle Marketing. It has been an honor and pleasure to help you assist with the Shenandoah Apple Blossom and Old Town Winchester Entertainment. The experience I've had will last for a lifetime. You showed me the way the marketing and advertising world works.

With these last five months, I've grown as an intern and feel very capable to use all of my learned knowledge, as I enter the work force. The material I have covered is far from what I expected to get the pleasure of knowing. From my love to sponsorships to simple Excel worksheets, your teachings have been very beneficial and have I proven to myself I am capable of doing it. You make us think on our own, but from your help we always find a way to figure it out.

I thank you for opening your business and teachings to me for my internship for Shepherd University. I hope in return you have learned something from myself to help better your future interns.

Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Allison Jones
